Garrett Coats Of Arms

Burke's General Armory lists two different coats of arms for the Garrett family. Following are descriptions of them:

Arms: Ermine, on a fesse azure a lion passant or. Crest: A lion passant langued gules resting the sinister paw on a trefoil. (Arms: On an ermine spotted field a blue horizontal bar containing a gold walking lion. Crest: A red walking lion resting the left paw on a three leaved blade of grass.)

Arms: Argent, a saltire and a border gules a crescent for difference. (Arms: On a silver field a cross in the form of an "X" within a red border with a crescent.)

INTRODUCTION

This is the third of two lists of Garrett names I have put together for the purpose of uncovering previously unknown facts about our branch of GARRETTS. We all supposedly tie together somewhere in the long forgotton and unfortunately, poorly documented past. Even recent ancestors seem to pass from this earth without even grandsons/granddaughters knowing if their grandpa had brothers and sisters. What started out as an endeavor to discover Arthur B. Garrett's siblings led to an ever expanding adventure into the past. Any inaccuracies in the ancestoral list may be corrected or enhanced by the addition of missing information by contacting me.*

HISTORY

THE modern family name of GARRETT traces its roots to the ancient Normans of Europe. The word Norman in itself is derived from "north men" or who else but the Vikings or Norsemen. They came quietly into the part of France, known today as Normandy, and then settled in England, Ireland, Portugal, and wherever else they damned well pleased, peacefully of course.

The name Garrett was, in those times, reportedly pronounced the same way as we now pronounce the words GERRARD or GERARD. Other derivations and mis-spellings of the name have since evolved into current form of GARRETT, the name we know today. Keep in mind that all those other varieties are still around and just may be distant, albeit very distant, cousins.

Tracing lineage to the first Garrett arrival in the New World is complex, but even more so is trying to decide which point of origin in the old world was used by your ancestor. One story has it that a ship left England with only four Garretts on board. The Garrett name was prominent and prestigious in England and a guarantee of preferential assignment of land and status upon arrival in the New World. When the ship landed, somehow there were at least thirty Garretts who left the ship.

In a nutshell (most likely hickory nut) our "somewhat" There was a John Garrett traceable history is as follows: Leicestershire, England whose children included John Garrett, born on February 2, 1635. This John married Elizabeth Ware with his brothers, William and Thomas, immigrated to America. They may have all came on the same ship or at different times, but we know they settled in and around Virginia. John children and of course named a son "John" (born 1675). This John Garrett married Francis Elizabeth Buckner and reportedly included in their children was a son named Joseph (born 1704) Joseph married Margaret Prince and was brother to Edward Garrett Joseph had a son whom he named Joseph Jr. (born 1729 Joseph Jr. married Elizabeth Smith and reportedly was among the first Garretts to settle around Duncan Creek, S.C. Of their children, one was inevitably named John (born 1750). John, Joseph Jr. married Hanna Harris and they had at least eight children. Elisha (born August 7, 1789) was one of their sons. Elisha married Nancy Madison and of their children, a boy born 1824, was named John Robert Garrett. Elisha and May 5, later ended up in the western section of Georgia. John family Robert married a cousin, Martha Ann Garrett and of their twelve children the first, born May 30, 1848, was named Harbet or Herbert Andrew Garrett, and the rest, as they say, is history.

GUIDE TO ANCESTORAL LIST

THIS ANCESTORAL LIST IS COMPILED BY GENERATION AND IS ACCESSED BY USING THE LEFT "PARENT" COLUMN OR BY THE "CHILD" COLUMN. EACH CHILD IS ASSIGNED A SEQUENTIAL NUMBER AS IT IS LISTED IN THE BOOK, JUST TO THE LEFT OF THE NAME. IF OR WHEN THE CHILD BECOMES A PARENT THAT SAME NUMBER IS LISTED BELOW THE NAME IN THE LEFT OR "PARENT" COLUMN.

THE FIRST 22 PAGES CONSIST OF AN INDEX TO AID IN LOCATING A PERSON AND THE REFERENCE NUMBER. WHEN THE NAME IS LOCATED USE THE REFERENCE NUMBER FOR THE LEFT COLUMN TO FIND THE NAME AS A PARENT WITH ITS CHILDREN OR USE THE NUMBER WITH THE CHILD COLUMN TO FIND THE NAME AS A CHILD WITH ITS BROTHERS AND SISTERS WITH THE PARENT. USING THESE METHODS, YOU CAN TRACE A TREE BACK TO THE FIRST GENERATION ALTERNATELY USING THE REFERENCE NUMBERS FOR THE PARENT AND CHILD COLUMNS.

IF YOU CAN PROVIDE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO WHAT HAS BEEN COLLECTED OR CAN UPDATE MISSING DATA, PLEASE CONTACT ME. IN NO WAY CONSIDER THE INFORMATION IN THE BOOK AS ABSOLUTE BUT AT LEAST I TRIED. I AM CHILD *569 FOR ADDRESS AND PHONE *.

THANK YOU,

R. WAYNE PORTER
